

Preferred Priorities of Care

Priorities, Preferences and Wishes are imperative for those at end of life. The aim of this programme is to provide an understanding of the Preferred Priorities for Care (PPC) initiative; part of the Governments (DoH) End of Life Strategy as an example of an advance care plan.

- Provide a brief history of the patient held (PPC) document and where it features within the DoH End of Life Care Strategy
- Include Who, How, When and Where the PPC would be utilised
- Exhibit contents of the document and discuss potential to improve the patients experience
- Include an overview of the Gold Standards Framework (DoH End of Life Care Strategy) and how the PPC is utilised within this context
- Include narrative and discussion around audit undertaking by the Advanced Care Co-ordinator at Fair Havens Hospice
- Illustrate the process of, and the skills required, for good communication
