A - F

Auction

Hold an auction at a special venue, club, group or home. Local businesses are often very generous and will donate items for you to auction, just contact us for our Supporter Agreement before you get started.

Dinner and Dance

Host an evening of delicious food and dancing for a wonderful night of fundraising. Download our 'How To Guide' for all the information and tips you need to make your bash for Havens Hospices a great success.

Enterprise Days

A perfect idea for schools, groups and clubs. Create your very own 'Apprentice' style challenge Alan Sugar would be proud of. For example, start off by investing just £5, and see how much money they can raise.

Bake off

Show off your baking skills and take part in a good old fashioned competition with family, friends or work colleagues. It's an easy way to raise money - and you get to eat lots of cake too!

Charity of the Year

Choose Havens Hospices as your Charity of the Year and we'll be beside you every step of the way, supporting your various fundraising activities throughout the year.

Festive fundraising

Christmas is the perfect time to fundraise. How about taking part in our annual '12 Days of Christmas' campaign which has lots of fundraising ideas such as asking people to wear a Christmas jumper or holding a holiday themed quiz at work or school.

G - M

Game Marathon

Whether it's video games or board games, get together and endure 24 hours of friendly competition. Players could make a donation to enter the competition and ask family and friends to sponsor those taking part.

Havens Hair Hero

Be a 'Havens Hair Hero', let your imagination run wild and sport the craziest hair style you can. Ask your family and friends to sponsor you and when you reach your target, take on your 'hair raising' challenge.

International Day

Host an evening of international fun with themed dinners, games and more. Simply ask your guests for a donation to attend. Travel around the world with friends without having to leave your home.

Jumble Sale

If you've got a lot of junk and items that need a new home, holding a jumble sale or going to a car boot sale is an easy and simple way to raise funds for Havens Hospices.

Karaoke

Get your best singing voices ready and host a singing competition at your school, club, group or work. You could charge donations for entry or ask singers to make a small donation for every song they sing on the night.

Lunch party

Why not use your lunch break to host a small party for your colleagues for Havens Hospices? Hold a raffle, enjoy some food and maybe a few party games to liven up your lunch time and raise money for the charity.

'Make your own' Sale

Get creative and help support Havens Hospices. If you love crafts you could raise money by selling whatever you make. From handmade jewellery to knitted blankets every item sold helps us continue 'Making every day count'.

N - S

Non-Uniform Day

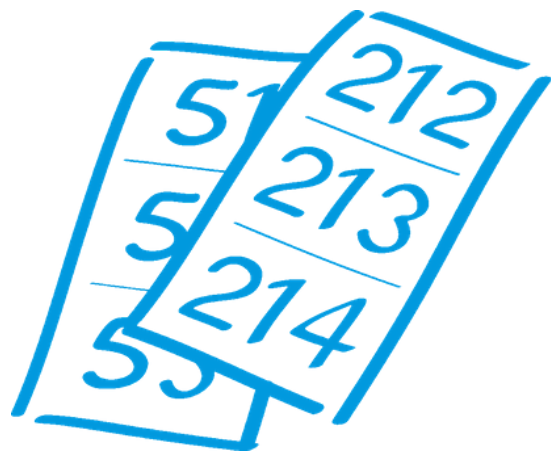

It's an easy way to get your school involved with raising money for Havens Hospices. The average school could raise around £800 by asking each student to donate £1 to take part.

Onesie Day

Like a dress down day but more cosy for the winter season. Asking for a small donation for every onesie that is worn by your coworkers and friends is a simple and fun way to support Havens Hospices.

Raffle

At Havens Hospices, we love a raffle. They are ideal for fetes, balls, large groups or fundraising events organised by businesses or associations. Request your raffle tickets by emailing FRadmin@havenshospices.org.uk

Photography

If one of your talents and skills is photography, then why not put it to good use and use it to raise money for Havens Hospices? You could create and sell cards from your pictures, host an exhibition or even create a calendar to sell.

Superhero Day

Release your inner Spiderman or Superwoman and dress up for Havens Hospices. You could ask for sponsorship to do good deeds for the day or week, or ask everyone at your work or school to join in with some Superhero themed fancy dress fun!

Quiz Night

Test yourself, your friends and family with a night of general knowledge and fun. Ask for a donation per entry or team. You can even hold a raffle on the night.

T - Z

Talent Contest

Everyone has a talent! Put them to good use and host an X-Factor or Britain's Got Talent style contest at your school or college for Havens Hospices. Why not get your teachers or managers involved too?

Unwanted Gift Sale

Host an unwanted gifts sale for Havens Hospices. This would be perfect in the New Year after Christmas!

Vintage Car Day

Show off your prized possession with fellow enthusiasts and host a Vintage Car Day for Havens Hospices and charge donations for entry.

Wine and Cheese

Add a little fun to your fundraising and invite friends and family to a wine and cheese tasting evening for Havens Hospices.

X Marks The Spot

Host a treasure hunt at your school, at work with your colleagues or with your friends and family and raise vital funds for our hospice care while having fun and searching for treasure.

Your Own Challenge

Use your imagination to come up with a new idea and have fun while supporting our hospice care. We have lots of exciting challenges you could take on if you are brave enough, to find out more visit our website.

Zumba-thon

Get friends and family together to have a great time dancing, staying fit and raising money for Havens Hospices. Participants can raise sponsorship as well as pay an entry fee.

Together we're 'Making every day count.'

Our hospice care can only exist because of the support and generosity from the community .

We understand that not everyone can support us in the same way but there are plenty of ways for you to fundraise for Havens Hospices and help us continue 'Making every day count' for the adults and children we care for, as well as their families.

Whether you're an individual, group, business or club we are here to support you with your fundraising.
